

Informed citizenry is the foundation of a real democracy. Information must come from a variety of sources, no one company can present a fair and balanced view. Hence one MUST have access to a variety of media with a variety of points of view to get at the truth.

STOP consolidating our sources of news.